Tuesday, February 22
4:30pm – 6:00pm EDT

The Work of Philip Nord:
In conversation with David Bell and Nancy Bermeo

A71 Louis A. Simpson International Building

This event will be held in-person for Princeton faculty, staff, and students only. It will also live stream on Zoom, open to the public, but advance registration is required.

This event engages the many contributions of Professor Phil Nord, one of the founding directors of European Politics and Society, to the field of contemporary European studies. Professor David Bell and Emerita Professor Nancy Bermeo will lead us in a discussion of his intellectual contributions.

David Bell
Sidney and Ruth Lapidus Professor in the Era of North Atlantic Revolutions. Professor of History. Director, Shelby Cullom Davis Center for Historical Studies

Nancy Bermeo
Nuffield Senior Research Fellow Oxford University. Nuffield Chair of Comparative Politics Emeritus Oxford University. Professor of Politics Emeritus Princeton University.

Phil Nord
Rosengarten Professor of Modern and Contemporary History, Emeritus

Organized by:
Program in Contemporary European Politics and Society

Co-sponsor:
The Center for Collaborative History