Richard Falk, Professor Emeritus at Princeton and a truly seminal figure in the study of world order on campus and beyond, has recently published his memoir, Public Intellectual: The Life of a Citizen Pilgrim (2021). On April 30, the RWO research community will be hosting a talk with Professor Falk about his memoir. We intend this talk to serve as a celebration of his illustrious career and rich scholarship. Anne-Marie Slaughter (Princeton and New America), Daniel Deudney (Johns Hopkins), Zia Mian (Princeton), and Mary Kaldor (LSE) will be joining us as discussants, and our research director, G. John Ikenberry, will be moderating the conversation.
